Living Places

Balfour Beatty Living Places is a highways, streetlighting and public realm provider in the Local Authority market. We design, manage and maintain the whole streetscene environment from comprehensive highways infrastructure to better, safer and more attractive places to work, live and socialise. Our place-shaping approach means that we focus on people's needs and the benefits we bring by doing what we do. We create the environments that are designed to achieve economic growth and allow communities to thrive. Locally we are responsible for ensuring Leicester's street lights are maintained to a high standard.

A group of children in high-visibility vests are lying on a road, forming a line. A circular graphic in the top right corner contains the text "DON'T RISK IT". Below this, large white text reads: "Illegal parking outside schools will get you a parking ticket. Worse, it could cost lives." At the bottom, smaller white text says: "Park responsibly or leave your car behind - give walking a go. We'll all benefit." The background is a photograph of a road with yellow markings. In the top left corner, there is small vertical text: "City & County of Swansea & the photographer Jason Rogers".
